

Prices will Interest You.
Reductions in all Departments.
SPECIAL SALE.
BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S ITS! OVERCOATS!
SCH BROS.
Others and Tailors,
44 WHITEHALL STREET.
GENERAL MILL SUPPLIES, ETC.

BROWN & KING,
FACTURERS OF AND DEALERS
N. WOLAN AND GENERAL MILL SUPPLIES,
SERY AND TOOLS, LEATHER AND RUBBER
MARK, FACING ETC. PORTABLE FORGERS, PRESSURE BLOWERS
HAUST PANS WROUGHT IRON PIPE FITTINGS AND BRASS GOODS.
For Prices and 100 BROAD STREET,
New York.

ROAD STREET,
New York.

LINE, CEMENT AND COAL.
Stove Flue, absolutely of Terra Cotta Chimney and Stove Thimbles.

TIME,
PLASTER PARIS,
DRAIN PIPE,
SEWER PIPE,
FIRE BRICK,
FIRE CLAY,
PLASTER HAIR,
MARBLE DUST,
SHOP COAL,
GRATE COAL.

Dealers in Fine Whiskies, AND AGENTS FOR
Celebrated Milwaukee "Pilsener" Bottled Beer.

LAUER BEER.
JACOB MOERLEIN, Supr. GEO. MOERLEIN, Vice Pres.
JOHN MOERLEIN, Treas. WM. MOERLEIN, Asst. Secy.

MOERLEIN BREWING CO.,
CINCINNATI, OHIO.

350,000 BARRELS YEARLY.

ER BEER.

For Sale Everywhere in Atlanta.

Belig, Atlanta Agent.

ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED.

ILL, President.

JACOB HAAS, Cashier

CITY BANK

EVERY DAY UNTIL 2, AND
Tuesdays and Mondays Until 7 p.m.

ed on England, Germany, France and all at lowest market rates.

VOL. XIX.

MR. BLAINE'S LETTER.

What the People Have to Say About It.

IS THE WRITER SINCERE?

Some Think Mr. Blaine Means
What He Says.

PROMINENT MEN INTERVIEWED.

WHILE OTHERS SAY THAT IT IS A SHAM.

Comment of the Press.

St. Louis, February 13.—[Special.]—The Globe-Democrat has interviews with some of the leading republicans in the north, west and south, and the general expression of opinion may be summed up as follows: There is first of all, a general feeling of gladness among republicans who favor the nomination of Mr. Blaine. The belief is very general that Mr. Blaine is sincere, and that the people will take him at his word and let some other man forge his way to the front. All who take this view believe Mr. Blaine's declaration to mean success for the party in 1888.

As to probable candidates most favored, the names suggested are Sherman, Lincoln, Sheridan, Gresham, Allison, Harrison and Hawley. It is remarkable how many of the parties interviewed favored Sheridan. There is much talk in this connection about Mr. Blaine's self-sacrifice and so forth.

A second lot of interview parties believe Mr. Blaine's letter to mean that he will not accept the nomination unless it is tendered to him by the unanimous vote of the convention and the approval of the other candidates. This feeling is particularly strong in Kansas.

A third set of opinions are well expressed by their holders by General Alger, of Detroit, himself a possible candidate. He says:

"I am not greatly surprised at the Blaine letter and believe that it removes Mr. Blaine from the possibility of a nomination. While it has for some time past been clear that as the situation stood Mr. Blaine had a walk-over for the nomination, yet there has been an element in the party that did not want him nominated and this representation is strong enough to take him at his word and hold him there, if he is in the hands of his friends, and if they what he has written. No sir, that letter has been written for just what appears on its face. Perhaps it is the wisest thing that Mr. Blaine could do. Who can say? Iowa men think Blaine's withdrawal clears the track for Allison."

New Jersey men are sorry for the letter. They believe protection to be the issue in the next campaign and think no one could present that issue like Blaine.

Maryland republicans believe Mr. Blaine's letter leaves the clear field for a united party and some conservative candidate.

In Pennsylvania and West Virginia the feeling is all but unanimous that Blaine will be forced to run, despite his letter. All the big strong men seem to think a protective tariff issue calls for Mr. Blaine as the candidate.

The following are a few sample interviews: Congressman Butterworth, of Ohio, said:

"I think Mr. Blaine means to be sincere but he is in the hands of his friends, and if they what he has written. No sir, that letter has been written for just what appears on its face. Perhaps it is the wisest thing that Mr. Blaine could do. Who can say? Iowa men think Blaine's withdrawal clears the track for Allison."

F. F. Baker, editor of the Topeka, Kans., Daily Commonwealth, said:

"The letter is a good one. It is written in good faith, and from what I heard in Maine while recently there on a visit, I am not a bit surprised. I know positively from what I learned in Maine, that Blaine would not accept the nomination if offered him unanimously. While Blaine is ambitious since his death he has been a changed man. That I know positively."

Robert Lincoln, of Chicago, says:

"What I could say about Mr. Blaine's letter, would interest no one but myself. I am clean plump out of politics. I don't know anything about it, and am not interested in it. My private business is more to me than Mr. Blaine's letter."

Ex-Congressman George A. Halsey, of Newark, N. J., one of Blaine's closest friends, said tonight:

"Well, I don't know what to say about the letter, but I do know that he was sincere. I suppose we must give up hope, if he will not be our standard-bearer, but I am in favor of nominating him, for he is, I believe, the best and strongest man we have. I don't believe he will decline the nomination if it is tendered to him by the unanimous vote of the convention. It is not true that Mr. Blaine wrote that he would not be a candidate for the presidency, but he did say before the last presidential campaign that he had personal reasons for not being a candidate. What those reasons are, I do not know, but I suppose they were the same that influence him now."

William E. Barrett, editor of the Boston Advertiser and Boston Record, who was interviewed at Washington, said:

"I have talked with the Massachusetts senators and representatives. The general sentiment among them is one of satisfaction at the letter of declaration. Mr. Jones stated that change of situation. Massachusetts will send to the Chicago convention a delegation of her strongest and most representative republicans, headed by Senator Hoar. The delegation will be composed of without bias, prepared to vote for what shall appear to be the best ticket, after the convention meets. The delegation will go in the spirit which characterized that of 1880. My own feeling is that McKinley and Hawley would make a fine ticket.

From interviews with other prominent republicans telegraphed here tonight, it appears that a majority of them were taken by surprise by the letter and all sorts of opinions are expressed as to its real purpose. Ohio men are jubilant. They accept it at its face value and say it means Sherman for the republican candidate.

The Baltimore Herald editorially nominates Roscoe Conkling.

"The New York Evening Post says: 'We think that Mr. Blaine's letter to Chairman Jones does a double duty. It takes him out of the field as a contestant for the republican nomination for the presidency. We think that it will be the effect and not the result of it, whether he so intended it or not.'

This is also the opinion of Senator Quay, of Pennsylvania. A great many of Mr. Blaine's friends, however, assume that the letter changes the situation at all, and some democrats express themselves the same way, but give different reasons for their belief or no reason at all for their belief.

Views of Congressmen.

How the Letter Was Received in Washington.

Washington, Feb. 13.—[Special.]—Mr. Blaine's letter announcing that he will not be a candidate before the national republican convention, has been the chief topic of conversation among both senators and representatives today. The republicans, however, of course, manifest more interest in the letter than the democrats. Many republicans accept it as a sincere declaration that he has given up the race. Some republicans, and many democrats say he could not have made a more effective bid for the nomination, and that it is as affecting no one as if it were not the republican candidate. I give below the views of some members as expressed to me today:

Senator Voorhees thinks the letter a very urgent appeal for the nomination, and an attempt to make his party united and unanimously ask him to make the race.

Senator Plumb, of Kansas, thinks it a sincere withdrawal.

Senator Berry, of Arkansas, has no faith in it. He thinks it a trick to get him out of the race.

Senator Blair says he thinks Blaine means what he says, but his declaration is a misfortune for the republicans. It seems to him that the republicans are too much to the republican party for that. The issue next year will be tariff vs. free-trade, and as Blaine is the strongest exponent of the protection system, he will be a liability to the republicans.

Senator Frye said: "I think the letter is exactly what it purports to be—an instruction to what Mr. Blaine intends to present his name to the convention. It does not clear the field for a year and he made it to be chosen."

Senator Farwell said: "In reading between the lines, I infer that Mr. Blaine has a stronger feeling for the party than he has for himself. He is not so much in the hands of his friends, and if they what he has written. No sir, that letter has been written for just what appears on its face. Perhaps it is the wisest thing that Mr. Blaine could do. Who can say? Iowa men think Blaine's withdrawal clears the track for Allison."

Mr. Holman, well known as the "watch dog" of the treasury, says: "The letter shows that Mr. Blaine is not a candidate for the republican party, and he will be nominated."

Mr. Kelley, from the republican side, says he has no doubt that the letter is a sincere declaration of withdrawal.

COLUMBIA, O., February 13.—John Sherman, who is in the city, on hearing that Mr. Blaine would not be a candidate for the republican party, said that he had been expecting some such utterance from Mr. Blaine. Mr. Cleveland has been expected to be the republican candidate, and he would be disappointed if he were not.

Mr. Sherman said that he had been expecting some such utterance from Mr. Blaine. Mr. Cleveland has been expected to be the republican candidate, and he would be disappointed if he were not.

Mr. Sherman said that he had been expecting some such utterance from Mr. Blaine. Mr. Cleveland has been expected to be the republican candidate, and he would be disappointed if he were not.

Mr. Sherman said that he had been expecting some such utterance from Mr. Blaine. Mr. Cleveland has been expected to be the republican candidate, and he would be disappointed if he were not.

Mr. Sherman said that he had been expecting some such utterance from Mr. Blaine. Mr. Cleveland has been expected to be the republican candidate, and he would be disappointed if he were not.

Mr. Sherman said that he had been expecting some such utterance from Mr. Blaine. Mr. Cleveland has been expected to be the republican candidate, and he would be disappointed if he were not.

Mr. Sherman said that he had been expecting some such utterance from Mr. Blaine. Mr. Cleveland has been expected to be the republican candidate, and he would be disappointed if he were not.

Mr. Sherman said that he had been expecting some such utterance from Mr. Blaine. Mr. Cleveland has been expected to be the republican candidate, and he would be disappointed if he were not.

Mr. Sherman said that he had been expecting some such utterance from Mr. Blaine. Mr. Cleveland has been expected to be the republican candidate, and he would be disappointed if he were not.

Mr. Sherman said that he had been expecting some such utterance from Mr. Blaine. Mr. Cleveland has been expected to be the republican candidate, and he would be disappointed if he were not.

Mr. Sherman said that he had been expecting some such utterance from Mr. Blaine. Mr. Cleveland has been expected to be the republican candidate, and he would be disappointed if he were not.

Mr. Sherman said that he had been expecting some such utterance from Mr. Blaine. Mr. Cleveland has been expected to be the republican candidate, and he would be disappointed if he were not.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, TUESDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 14, 1888.

GEORGIA RIVERS

That Need Improving to Make
Them Navigable.

THE AMOUNT OF MONEY NECESSARY

Georgians Who Have Claims Against the Government for Damage Done During the War—Other Gossip.

WASHINGTON, February 13.—[Special.]—President Cleveland has practically decided to spend a few days in Florida during the present month, and unless unforeseen circumstances should arise, he will probably leave here next Monday and be absent about a week. Representative Davidson called on him Saturday and assured him if he and Mrs. Cleveland would consent to make the trip, a committee would come here to make all arrangements. While he has said definitely what he would do, he led Mr. Davidson to believe that he would accept his invitation. He will probably spend a few hours in Savannah on Monday.

Mr. Clements introduced the following bills today:

ASKING FOR APPROPRIATIONS.

To appropriate $50,000 for the completion of the improvement of the Coosa river, $200,000 for the further improvement of the same river between Greensport and Wetumpka, Ala., at this point being the only obstruction of navigation between Rome and Mobile; also, a bill to appropriate $200,000 to improve the channels of the Oostanaula and Coosa rivers.

The committee on territories did not come to a decision on the question of admitting the four territories—Washington, Montana, New Mexico and Dakota—to the union on account of the absence of Mr. Baker, who introduced the bill to divide Dakota and admit the southern portion as a state. He will be heard and the committee will decide upon a report at their meeting on Wednesday.

Mr. Gresham, of Virginia, today introduced a bill in the house to refund to all who had made contracts with the United States government in the years of 1859, 1860 and 1861, the amount due them, making in all a total of $375,000. If the bill is passed the money will go to Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Tennessee, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

GEORGIA CLAIMANTS.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

LIBERTY OF THE PRESS.

A Bill in the House to Punish the Public
Use of Lottery Tickets.

WASHINGTON, February 13.—In the house Mr. Browne, of North Carolina, introduced a resolution instructing the committee on ways and means to report what progress it has made in the consideration of bills repealing the internal revenue taxes, and to state what time such bills are likely to be reported to the house.

In case the committee is unable to report upon these bills, it is instructed to report that fact to the house, and bills shall be placed on the calendar.

The first bill called up was one punishing the advertising of lottery tickets in the district of Columbia. It was introduced by Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, upon constitutional grounds. "The bill would," he said, "prevent any paper, no matter where published, from coming into the district, and would infringe upon the liberty of the press."

GEORGIA RIVERS

That Need Improving to Make
Them Navigable.

THE AMOUNT OF MONEY NECESSARY

Georgians Who Have Claims Against the Government for Damage Done During
the War—Other Gossip.

WASHINGTON, February 13.—[Special.]—President Cleveland has practically decided to spend a few days in Florida during the present month, and unless unforeseen circumstances should arise, he will probably leave here next Monday and be absent about a week. Representative Davidson called on him Saturday and assured him if he and Mrs. Cleveland would consent to make the trip, a committee would come here to make all arrangements. While he has said definitely what he would do, he led Mr. Davidson to believe that he would accept his invitation. He will probably spend a few hours in Savannah on Monday.

Mr. Clements introduced the following bills today:

ASKING FOR APPROPRIATIONS.

To appropriate $50,000 for the completion of the improvement of the Coosa river, $200,000 for the further improvement of the same river between Greensport and Wetumpka, Ala., at this point being the only obstruction of navigation between Rome and Mobile; also, a bill to appropriate $200,000 to improve the channels of the Oostanaula and Coosa rivers.

The committee on territories did not come to a decision on the question of admitting the four territories—Washington, Montana, New Mexico and Dakota—to the union on account of the absence of Mr. Baker, who introduced the bill to divide Dakota and admit the southern portion as a state. He will be heard and the committee will decide upon a report at their meeting on Wednesday.

Mr. Gresham, of Virginia, today introduced a bill in the house to refund to all who had made contracts with the United States government in the years of 1859, 1860 and 1861, the amount due them, making in all a total of $375,000. If the bill is passed the money will go to Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Tennessee, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

GEORGIA CLAIMANTS.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

Mr. Blount today introduced nearly a hundred bills in the house authorizing claims against the general government in Georgia, and in the territories of Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other southern states.

LIBERTY OF THE PRESS.

A Bill in the House to Punish the Public
Use of Lottery Tickets.

WASHINGTON, February 13.—In the house Mr. Browne, of North Carolina, introduced a resolution instructing the committee on ways and means to report what progress it has made in the consideration of bills repealing the internal revenue taxes, and to state what time such bills are likely to be reported to the house.

D. $ 40 a m
1 25 p m

W. CROMWELL,
Gen'l Pass. Agent.

S East Rome 10 30 am 6 40 pm

to Home

All trains run to East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia passenger depot in East Rome.

Trains to and from Atlanta, Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad, and with Rome railroad, a Cedarhurst with East and West Highland, Atlanta and Savannah.

J. D. WILLIAMSON, President. F. H. HARRIS, Acting Sup't.

to Home With

DYES!

RING, THEY ARE a package, 40 colors, 100 shades, 100 tints of Color, or non-break at amount. For

JUDICIOUS AND PERSEVERENT
Advertising has always prosperous. Before placing any Newspaper Advertising consult

LORD & THOMAS,
ADVERTISING AGENCIES
100 N. BROAD ST. CHICAGO

blind men, tall cleaners, etc., to make a living, the mill-hill boys never fail to patronize him, and the Atlanta boys will have him in charge during his stay in the city.

One blind man stood in the office of Mr. R. D. Taney yesterday, that gentleman said: "What time is it, Stanley?"

"I am slowly took out his watch and passing his fingers over the face, said:

"It is half past three, Bob?"

"That is right, Charles, but how can you tell?"

"You see," he replied, "the crystal is off. Anybody, even a blind man, can tell the time by his watch," and Mr. Callahan said that he had been wrong for although his sight is gone, he has not lost that freedom which he says he was wont to cherish his friends in the day of his sight.

They looked through straight in the face, their kindly belief of the good was heart in him many breast.

If you are nervous or dyspeptic, try Carter's Little Newc Pills. Dyspepsia makes you nervous, and nervousness makes you dyspeptic; either one renders you miserable and these little pills cure both.

Your Sweetheart will expect you to send her a valentine. Go to Miller's, 31 Marietta street, and select one early.

Go to the Jasper Festival at Savannah, February 20th, 21st and 22d, via the "Old Reliable" Central railroad of Georgia. Only $5.00 round trip.

Is the only has river tra-February 28th improvement at $60 a year.

Strangers ing room for street, corner their meals.
Jan'y-1st

ALMBACHER,
Breitenbucher's.

Gasden, Alabama.

iron and coal city of Alabama which importation. Exemption and land sale and 29th. Stock or the Land and company taken in "payment for lots and in the city will find "The Warrier" dining ladies and gentlemen, 15 Maricopa Boulevard, a very desirable place to take breakfast. Telephone checked five.
bet ad col 7p

G. H. & A. W. F.
G. W. PRICE,
Sole and Agent, Chicago

"DR. CHEEVER'S
DIET-RIGHT FOR!"

MEAT ONLY

Send address Cheever
Washington St. Chicago

FORCE, Agents, Agent, Atlanta

This book of regeneration made Exports for the cause of demagogues of
the world.
continuous stream of Elucsplicity permeating their
the world.
to healthy action. Do not confound this vision with
the world.
it is for the one specific purpose. For the American Belt Co., 103
103 103 103

A SPECIALTY.
Agents for Anti-Kalsomine
The best and cheapest preparation for finishings, walls and ceilings of dwellings, churches, stores, etc. Send for color cards, testimonials, etc.
45 Decatur Street, Atlanta, Ga.

